3. The names of candidates shall be notified at the Municipal Office at least five days before the day fixed for holding the election.

4. The Councillors present shall, if the President be absent, select for the purpose of presiding at the meeting one from among themselves, who is not a candidate.

5. The election shall be decided by eliminating one by one, the name of the candidate obtaining the least number of votes at each voting until there are only two candidates left and out of these, whoever obtains the larger number of votes shall be declared elected.

Provided that—

(a) if there is only one candidate, he shall be deemed to have been elected.

(b) in case of an equal number of votes being cast in favour of two candidates, a selection of one of them shall be made by lot immediately.

6. The result of the election shall be declared at the meeting immediately by the Presiding authority and communicated by him without delay to the Government through the Deputy Commissioner, along with the minutes of the proceedings of the meeting with the names of the members present.

7. The validity of the election may be contested by a petition signed by at least three Councillors and filed before the Deputy Commissioner within seven days from the date of the election and shall allege specific grounds for setting aside the election.

8. Upon receipt of such petition, an enquiry into the validity of such objection or objections shall be held by the Deputy Commissioner or other officer appointed by the Deputy Commissioner for the purpose and upon the conclusion of the enquiry the Deputy Commissioner shall report the proceedings together with his opinion to Government. It will thereupon be open to Government to pass orders declaring the election to be invalid.

By Order,

R. RANGA RAO,

General Secretary to Government.
